

B°TONG

HOSTILE SOUNDSCAPES - NOISY TECTONICS - DRONES & TONES

B°TONG is Chris Sigdell, former member of German experimental industrial group NID (1995 - 2005). With B°TONG he reaches for the nether regions of experimental ambient sound and established himself as an acknowledged professional soundscape artist. His music is a choice of dark, brooding layers of sound, high-pitched tones and weird electronic sounds that give birth to images of darkness and tranquillity, the solitude of an icy polar night or the equivalent of an underwater journey in a bottomless pit. To create these imaginary soundtracks to the inner eye, he uses samples and field-recordings, which he processes in his computer-programs together with recordings of his own voice and/or other vocal samples. There are no hand-played instruments involved. In a live-situation the computer is taboo - Chris Sigdell uses microphone, metal, electric gadgets and various kitchen utensils. The sounds thus generated are put through various effect-pedals giving him that trademark B°TONG sound, which has earned him the nickname "dronelord" by Aquarius Records.

B°TONG has appeared at renown experimental festivals such as: AUM Ritual, Audio Art Festival, Bruitisme, Les Digitaes, Norberg Festivalen), Temple Of Silence, PNEM Sound Art Festival, Kildemose Festival, Støy På Landet, Lab30, Shift, or Unser Industrie.

With over 300 performances under his belt, B°TONG has played all over Europe, completed three North American tours and travelled to Japan, sharing stages with artists like Aun, Bohren Und Der Club Of Gore, Daniel Davidovsky, Dave Phillips, Dieter Müh, Fabrizio Casti, Feine Trinkers Bei Pinkels Daheim, Frontline Assembly, Michael Northam, Michael Vorfeld, Rinus Van Alebeek, Robert Curgenwen, Robert Rich, Sudden Infant, or Zbigniew Karkowski.

B°TONG likes to collaborate with others. In the past he's been part of Tongdisklaktika (with Benny Braaten & Per Åhlund), the trio of Åhlund/Gaude/Sigdell, and most recently Thee Secrete Society (with Jürgen Eberhard, Helge Siehl & Melvin Neumann). He has contributed to installations and video-projects. His video-clips with video artist Silvia Bergmann have been shown at the 2007 Miami Art Fair as part of the Urban Nomad film-festival, and also in Beijing. Since 2017 Chris is working with circus-artist Finn Jagd Andersen (Zirkus Gonzo) and director Dehlia Dahinden composing and playing live the music for "Vertikal", which was first performed in November 2017. Chris is also to be seen in the well-known Swiss television series Der Bestatter - the episode "Spiel mit dem Feuer" (2019) features him as the guitarist in a live band, playing one of his own songs ...

Recent B°TONG releases are available on Silken Tofu, Reverse Alignment and Hots.

Hostile Environments:

... and yeah, if there was ever any doubt, Sigdell firmly establishes himself as an aq-pantheon-worthy dronelord... a virtual journey through dark caverns, toward whatever lurks below, fields of deep resonant rumbles, dripping water, distant billows of thunder, stretched out into weird glossolalic shimmers, thick chordal blurs that ooze and bleed ominously, splashing water doused in FX and transformed into a sort of garbled alien language. Fantastic. Essential dronemusic for sure!!
Aquarius Records

..."Hostile Environments" is a very dark album. It has a vibration of a certain drone of deep space, (...) a gothic masterpiece. The album is a post-industrial dark ambient classic. For me it is there with Inade's "Aldebaran", Lustmord's "The Place Where The Black Stars Hang" and "Digitaria" by T.A.G. Best album of 2014 so far!

Live Kildemose Festival 2012:

My friend Chris from the band, Phased, has started his ambient electronic set. It is strange ambient noise stuff that slowly develops over time. He has all sorts of cool gadgets and toys that he can make sounds with as it develops. It sounds like the sound inside a cargo ship traveling through the time space vortex. Cool set.
Scott Heller

Live Ballonfabrik, Augsburg 2012:

Mit b°tong bekamen wir eine Lehrstunde in Physik. Modifizierte Rührstäbe werden mit einem Metallstab in Schwingung versetzt: die kreierte Moleküle füllen den Raum mit blubbernden Geräuschen in allen Frequenzbereichen. Währenddessen wird der Kartoffelschäler mit dem Bogen bearbeitet und streut surrende Untertöne dazwischen. Alles ist irdisch, kompakt und fassbar. Ein optimistischer Set, danke b°tong! Dhyana Rec

Live Café Cairo, Würzburg 2010:

...hochgradig spannendes Kino für die Ohren. Sehen können, wie Soundgebilde entstehen, ist hier Programm. Sein Maschinenpark ist ein atemendes Wesen, wie ein Dschinn, der in seiner Flasche rumort, lacht, Selbstgespräche führt und, unklar ob als Opfer oder Schurke, Drohungen ausstößt. Den Handgriffen entsprechen unmittelbare Effekte, voluminöse Delaykaskaden, sirenenartige Glissandos, sehr abwechslungsreich und fesselnd. Wie ein Klangkunst-Veteran neben mir beifällig bestätigt, bekommt man Live-Elektronik derart gekonnt nicht alle Tage zu hören.

Die Faszination, die von B°TONGs Set ausging, sollte sich rumsprechen. Nicht oft wird derart sinnfällig gemacht, dass Freiheit etwas mit Improvisation zu tun hat, mit Spiel und nicht zuletzt mit Räumen, die man der Phantasie der Zuhörer aufuft.
Bad Alchemy

Live SHIFT - electronic arts festival, Basel 2008:

Kino für die Imagination. Ganz Geräusch, das nicht nur Klang, sondern mehr war - Struktur, Körper, Raum, Architektur.
Miss Gunst, Home Made Labor 08

Sehr beeindruckend.

The Soul Eater CD:

The Soul Eater' was released by Gears Of Sand in 2011 and reviewed back in Vital Weekly 776. It was an edition of 100 copies and sold out. Now Attenuation Circuit has re-issued ... Its good to see this in print still.
Frans deWaard, Vital Weekly

His work is always welcome on my desk. Music that is based on soundscapes from electronic sources as well as field recordings. A cavernous sound of metallic rumble, spooky voices, animal cries and transmissions intercepted. Utter dark, highly atmospheric, and simply very good music. It has a certain menace about it, like waiting for some mass destruction that, thank god, never arrives. Intense music, that doesn't come with a warning: don't play this in the dark on your own.

Frans deWaard, Vital Weekly

Ov Elf And Haarp CD-R:

A concept album by Swiss dark ambient/drone industrial legend B°tong which uses the conspiracy theory on the High-Frequency Active Auroral Research project (HAARP) as its basis while simultaneously infusing it with subtle and highly sophisticated artistic irony. ... This album is "cinema for the ears" without the cliché, because reading the liner notes about HAARP, an attempt by the US Navy to turn the aurora borealis in a giant antenna for broadcasting in the ELF (Extremely Low Frequencies), conjures up images from a conspiracy/horror thriller on the subject, which makes it possible to listen to this album as a sort of radio drama (almost) without words. ... This album is further testimony to the common ground between good industrial and atmospheric soundtracks.

Ov ELF and HAARP liegen die Verschwörungstheorien über das US-amerikanische High Frequency Active Auroral Research Program in Alaska und über Manipulationsmöglichkeiten durch Extremely Low Frequency-Wellen zugrunde. Wobei Chris Sigdell die

Thematik eher ironisch und zweifelnd angeht - If is not when. ... Äußerst suggestiv spielt B°tong mit Paranoia, Brainstorming, den Phantomen, die auf elektromagnetischen Wellen surfen. Nicht durchzudrehen ist vielleicht nur ein Mangel an Phantasie.

Verschwörerisches Kopfkino! ...Wie nicht anders erwartet, präsentiert der Wahlschweizer ein packendes Konzeptalbum, das aufgrund seiner Intensität zu den Aushängeschildern der Szene gehört – meine absolute Empfehlung! Für Kopfkino fetischisten ein Pflichtkauf!
Kulturterrorismus, Juni 2011

This new one is more or less a concept album about the conspiracy theory 'on the High Frequency Active Auroral Research Project'.
...Excellent work.
Frans deWaard, Vital Weekly 786

Ein Cocktail wunderbarer Drones, schrecklich-schauriger Geistersamples und soundtrackartigen Klanglandschaften, die über den Hörer hinwegkriechen. ... Toll. "Ov ELF And HAARP" ist zu jedem Zeitpunkt fein kalkuliert programmiert
Der Medienkonverter, Nov 11

Drone Mind // Mind Drone LP:

You know you want this album, and you are going to buy it.
What makes this release a definite must-have is the same reason why you visit festivals with sounds, music and sound-art. Four days before the year 2011 is over, this release solidly puts itself in the annual Top Three. Without any doubt! Connexion Bizarre

Eindrucksvoll in allen Belangen! Mit "Drone-Mind // Mind-Drone Vol.1 legt Drone Records die Messlatte für weitere Veröffentlichungen in dieser Reihe verdammt hoch, den in jeglichen Belangen mag diese fein abgestimmte Kompilation vollends überzeugen – meine absolute Empfehlung! PS: Wer nur die Highlights der Szenerie kauft, kommt um die LP faktisch nicht umher!
Kulturterrorismus, 23. Januar 2012

Hysteria CD:

Mit "Hysteria" setzt Chris Sigdell, der starke Mann hinter b°tong, ein weiteres Ausrufezeichen in Sachen experimenteller Dark Ambient!
Kulturterrorismus, RaF Dezember 09

b°tong's prolific output is only matched by the variety of music he creates. From electronic, to ambient, to experimental, each release takes a form all its own and makes it's own statement. From the actual music to the artwork and packaging, B°tong's creations are all encompassing. Everything is inter-related and suitable, yet interesting.
Heathen Harvest 09.09

It's a darkly psychotropic experience and one I urge you to try for yourself.
A Wonderful Wooden reason 09

That's the way to do these things. Bravo for b°tong.
Frans de Waard, Vital Weekly 09

Structures CD:

An amazing drone machine with such strong dense structures mutating all the time.
Colombian Cocaine

A very powerful album, with a fine combination of long soundscapes and sonic events that are dotting the landscape. The result, whether monumental or not, is indeed worth time and money.
Heathen Harvest 6 09

Der Sound von „Structures“ ist düsterer, roher und echter als man das sonst vorgeworfen bekommt. Knarzendes maschinelles Rauschen – Brummen – purer Sound. Gut so.
A.Z., Dead Magazine 4 09

It's a well thought-out and excellently performed noise collage.
Kronus Metal 09

It feels a lot like an agonizingly slow crawl through a dark tunnel where the dim light at the other end never gets closer.
Adam Costa, adequacy.net 2009

Icy cold drones recorded between 2005 and 2006 inspired by a visit to an ice palace in Sweden. Exquisite.
Mersenne, Udomondo 08

Pure Bedrohlichkeit und Zerstörung aus Feldaufnahmen. Gekonnte Melange aus den Stilen Dark Ambient, Drone und Noise.
kulturterrorismus.de 08

Chilling and effective. A superlative release of darkened environments and harrowing moods.
goatsend.blogspot.com

Perfect Isolationist drone music. This is his best work to date.
Franz de Waard, Vital Weekly 08

Polar:is CD-R:

It's considerably more interesting than most music being produced in this style at the moment and if, to use a crass term, dark ambient is your particular bag, then you'd be hard pressed to find anything better.
Wonderful Wooden Reasons 08

Moving away from the microsound laptop doodling, he enters the spheres of isolationist drone music.
Frans de Waard, Vital Weekly 06

Nid - Plate Tectonics CD:

Irony is an integral part of the music business: after over a decade of touring, performing and playing, Nid finally get to release their first full-length record with one of the bigger labels on the scene and then the band has already disbanded. For twelve years, the project was a constant, its members operating from their home bases of Switzerland and Germany, but reaching out to all of Europe, selling self-burnt CD-R's from the trunk of their car. But even though "Plate Tectonics" has missed out on providing them with their hoped-for breakthrough, it is still a welcome document of a band who could truly "rock" a crowd.
Tobias Fischer, Mouvement Nouveau 07

An amazingly weird record, and absolutely essential listening for the drone obsessed, which we would assume should be most of you...
Aquarius Records 07

'Plate Tectonics' is said to be the only real CD - although you never know, if they reach the same mythical status as Maeror Tri, that might change.
Franz de Waard, Vital Weekly 07
